Congratulations to Adam Tagert, OSIG's Newest Deputy Inspector General

The Virginia Office of the State Inspector General is proud to announce Adam Tagert as the new Deputy Inspector General for the Audit Division.

In his new role, Tagert will oversee the Audit Division, managing all performance audits within state executive branch agencies. Under his leadership, two audit teams will work together to ensure programs and operations in executive branch agencies are efficient and cost effective.

"I am honored to be chosen for this leadership role at OSIG. It is a new and exciting opportunity for me to serve the citizens of the Commonwealth and the agencies we work with," said Deputy Inspector General Adam Tagert.

Tagert had a combination of 10 years of service in the Commonwealth of Virginia as an auditor before joining OSIG in 2014. Since his time with OSIG, Tagert's extensive supervisory experience and knowledge of the Yellow Book has been invaluable. Tagert holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, and is a Certified Government Audit Professional, a Certified Internal Auditor and a Certified Inspector General Auditor.
